THE WRITERS.

Rex Beach, the author, is a manufacturer of bricks—not the kind used in illegal commercial transactions, but the real building bricks.

Rider Haggard is a very rapid worker with his pen. "She," for instance, was written in six weeks from the time Mr. Haggard began it till it was ready for the publishers.

It is twenty-six years since George Elliot's death and Herbert Spencer's unsuccessful appeal for her burial in Westminster abbey. In her old home neighborhood of Warwickshire the first memorial to her has just been erected, a granite pillar bearing the words, "Lest We Forget."

Gabriele d'Annunzio, the famous Italian dramatist, is busy overseeing the construction of his own sepulchral monument, which is being carried out by the head architect of the Florence cathedral. The tomb is to be erected by the source of the river Pescara, so prominent in D'Annunzio's writings.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Fill hot water bags through a funnel, else the water collecting around the nozzle or mouth will rot the rubber at that point.

When grinding bread through the food chopper tie a paper bag on the top of the chopper and the crumbs will not be scattered about.

For clothes that have become yellow and grimy make a mixture of kerosene, clear linewater and turpentine in equal parts. Shake together until creamy, then add a cupful of the mixture to every boilerful of clothes.

It is said that a half lemon kept in the ice chest will prevent milk or butter from absorbing the flavor of other edibles in the chest. When possible, however, the milk and butter should be kept in a separate compartment.

State Lines.

Colorado will be thirty years old on Aug. 1, and beginning this summer the date is to be marked by an annual celebration.

According to the laws of the state of New York, the property of the wife is her own, free from all claims of the husband, and can be disposed of without consulting the husband in any way.

Fire Hose.

As late as 1682 squirts or syringes were used for extinguishing fire in England, and their length did not exceed two or three feet, with pipes of leather. Water tight seamless hose was first made in Bethnal Green in 1720.

Dentistry in Japan.

Up to a few years ago the dentists of Japan pulled teeth with their fingers. Forceps and other instruments are now being generally used.
